Seiler LLP Sees Uptick in the Silicon Valley, Expands its Technology Practice and Admits Faisal Jeddy as Audit Partner

Redwood City, CA (October 19, 2010): Seiler LLP (www.seiler.com), a large regional accounting firm located in the San Francisco Bay Area, is expanding its Technology Practice. As part of this expansion, Seiler LLP is pleased to announce that it has admitted Faisal Jeddy, CPA, into the partnership as audit partner where he will help spearhead this growth.

“Seiler LLP is firmly committed to the technology industry and we anticipate further growth in this industry in the Silicon Valley and surrounding Bay Area. In response, we are continuing to expand the sophisticated audit, tax, and consulting services we already provide to technology companies and venture capital firms,” said Jim DeMartini, Managing Partner of Seiler LLP. “Faisal and our cross-functional team of high-tech focused professionals will continue to concentrate on private companies, especially those in the software, semi-conductor, web applications and professional services areas, and the venture capital arena.”

Faisal brings more than 17 years of experience to Seiler LLP, coming from SOAProjects, Inc., where he led their Technical Accounting and Financial Reporting Advisory Practice. Prior to this, he was an audit partner at BDO Seidman, LLP where he worked on some of the largest audit engagements in their San Jose office. Faisal focuses on complex accounting areas in high-tech companies, including revenue recognition, accounting for financial instruments, mergers and acquisitions, impairment of long lived assets, accounting for intangible assets, restructuring and foreign exchange issues. Faisal started his career with PricewaterhouseCoopers.
